

Description of MHSA Equity Child Maps

On all maps, the locations of current Children's Mental Health contractors are indicated with a blue star, while the locations of Community Clinics are shown with a plus sign.

CY3a – This map shows the location of the Asian / Pacific Islander population in San Diego County, ages 0-17, who are below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: one zip code, 92105, has 18.3% of the low income API youth in the county, while the next highest zip code has 7.9%.

CY3b – This map shows the location of the Hispanic population in San Diego County, ages 0-17, who are below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county.

CY4.1 - This map shows the location of the San Diego County population, ages 0-17, who are below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level, regardless of race/ethnicity. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: one zip code, 92105, has 7.9% of the low income youth in the county, while the next highest zip code has 5.9%.

CY4.2 Inpatient – This map shows the location of youth in San Diego County who used publicly funded inpatient services. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: one zip code, 92123, has 10.7% of the inpatient utilizing youth in the county, while the next highest zip code, 91911, has 5.3%.

CY4.2 Crisis – This map shows the location of youth in San Diego County who used crisis services. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: one zip code, 92123, has 10.3% of the crisis services utilizing youth in the county, while the next highest zip code, 91911, has 6.6%.

CY5.1 - This map shows the location of youth in San Diego County who are involved with the Probation department. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: 3.5% of the youth do not have zip codes listed in the datafile, while 2.4% have California zip codes outside of San Diego county and 2.4% have zip codes outside of California.

CY6.1 - This map shows the location of the San Diego County population, ages 0-4, who are below 200% of the Federal Poverty Level, regardless of race/ethnicity. The zip codes labeled in red are the areas that have the highest percentages in the county. Note: one zip code, 92105, has 9.1% of the low income youth, ages 0-5, in the county, while the next highest zip code has 5.6%.